Redirecting Children's Behavior

Rachel Wallace Reid, Certified Parenting Instructor and Montessori Teacher

Redirecting Children's Behavior is an exceptionally inspiring course that will provide proven methods for changing inappropriate and unacceptable child behavior, while encouraging the strengthening of familial relationships and bonds. The RCB course is based on the work by Dr. Rudolph Dreikurs, acclaimed therapist, researcher, and author of Children the Challenge. Come discover over 100 new tools to enrich your parenting tool box while building a support group and friendships with other Center parents.

Discover new ways in which to:

- Create peace in your home
- Avoid power struggles
- Diminish sibling rivalry
- Reduce temper tantrums
- Encourage cooperation
- Solve problems peacefully
